

LOCAL MATTERS.

WE ARE again under obligations to Messrs. QUINN & BROS., of the News Depot, King-street, near Ann, for late files of Northern and Southern dailies. They have also favored us with some of the weeklies, among which we notice Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper.

MR. HORACE P. KEOG, of Market-street, will also please accept our thanks for full files of New York dailies of a late date, as also for the Army and Navy Journal, and German and Italian papers.

OUR THANKS are due to Mr. D. A. KEYES, Agent of BROS. HOUSTON & MURRAY'S Combination Circuit, for late files of New York papers. Mr. KEYES visits our city for the purpose of making arrangements for the opening of his Circuit Company here at an early date.

DISTINGUISHED ARRIVAL.—Major-General O. O. HOWARD, Commissioner of Bureau Refugees, Freedmen and Abandoned Lands, arrived in this city yesterday, by the Northeastern Railroad.

WE HAD the pleasure, last evening, of a visit from Mr. Andrews, the well-informed and gentlemanly correspondent of the Boston Advertiser. Our citizens will remember with a great deal of kindness Mr. Andrews' proper representation of them to his readers. Unlike most correspondents who have come among us since the termination of the war, Mr. Andrews has on all occasions given fair and impartial accounts of what he has seen. He has just returned from an extended tour through this State and North Carolina, and will leave shortly, he tells us, for Georgia. However, while he is here we ask for him the hospitality of our citizens.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Tuesday Morning.—Three individuals who had been indulging too freely in alcoholics, and had been disturbing the people and the peace of Middle-street, were fined, by His Honor, $10 each.

WE WOULD call the attention of the Authorities to a hole on the sidewalk, on the south side of Hayne-street, in the vicinity of this office, where a grating has been removed. It is dangerous to persons passing at night, and we hope it may be attended to.

THE ECLIPSE OF TO-MORROW.—There will be to-morrow, October 10th, an annular eclipse of the sun, as seen by persons in the city, as Charleston is in the line or path of the earth, in which, if the observer is situated, he will see the centre of the moon to pass over the centre of the sun. Along this route there will be seen a ring of light around the margin of the sun, which will be half a digit wide and the eclipse eleven digits in size. Begins at Charleston 8h. 20m. A. M. Greatest obscuration 9h. 56m. 15s. A. M. Ends 11h. 47m. 16s. This eclipse is visible throughout the United States as a partial eclipse, except along the line as expressed above.

THE FOLLOWING list comprises, alphabetically, the names of those persons who are candidates, and will be voted for to-day:

- For Governor. ORR, JAMES L. For Lieutenant-Governor. PORTER, W. D. For State Senator. BUIST, HENRY. HENREY, W. S. LESSEN, H. D. For Representatives. ARNAU, W. D. P. MELCHERS, F. ADAMS, W. S. MILLIGAN, J. T. BARRETT, T. G. MCGOWAN, J. E. COOKAN, P. J. CAMPBELL, J. B. POLCHER, F. J. DURIEA, R. S. RICHARDSON, F. D. EASON, J. M. REHET, JR., R. B. GAYER, W. J. RYAN, T. P. HANCKEL, J. ST. AMAND, M. W. LUCAS, B. SIMONSON, C. H. LORD, JR., S. WAGNER, J. A. MIKELL, W. E.

CHANGE OF SALE.—The entire contents of CLAUSSEN'S Mills, No. 17 Anson-street, will be sold, on Friday next, 20th inst., by MILLIGAN & SON. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock.

FRESH GROCERIES.—N. LEVIN, Jr., Nos. 104 and 106 Market-street, still continues to receive supplies of fresh groceries, which he offers for sale low. See his advertisement.

LEONARD CHAPIN.—It affords us pleasure to announce the resumption of business by this well known merchant, whose enterprise, energy and reputation rank him with those of our citizens who are considered an honor to our city. His established character affords the best of guarantee that any business entrusted to him will be faithfully executed. By referring to his advertisement it will be seen his place of business is changed to Nos. 14 and 16 Hayne-street, extending through to and giving an equal front on Pinckney-street.

SADDLERY WAREHOUSE.—We are glad to see so many of our old merchants returning to resume business, who have enjoyed the confidence of our community—and none more so than the firm of HARRAL, NICHOLS & CO., manufacturers and dealers in saddlery, coach and harness trimmings, &c., who hope soon to be prepared to furnish their old friends and customers with goods of superior quality in their line of business. They may be found in Hasel-street, south side, second door east of King-street.

BUTAL MURDER.—The Abbeville Press, of the 12th, mentions a most atrocious murder upon the person of Major JAMES J. ADAMS, of that District, who was killed while hunting turkeys, by some negroes, as is supposed. Upon his side were wounds from an axe, a deep gash in his head, and his face beaten in so as not to be recognized, and there was evidence around the spot where the murder was committed, of a violent struggle. Two negroes have been arrested and placed in jail, against whom there were strong grounds of suspicion, and several others are implicated.

IN THE Third Congressional District, composed of Orangeburg, Edgewood, Abbeville, Newberry, Lexington, Richland and Fairfield, Gen. SAMUEL MCGOWAN is the only candidate for Congress, Mr. TILMAN, his competitor, having withdrawn.

WE FIND, by the Greenville Enterprise, that the following gentlemen are candidates for Member of Congress from the Fourth Congressional District, composed of Anderson, Pickens, Greenville, Laurens, Spartanburg, Union, York, and Chester, viz: JAMES FARROW, J. D. AHMORS, and J. P. REED.

THE AUGUSTA Chronicle and Sentinel, of last Saturday contains the following:

A Step in the Right Direction.—A citizen of South Carolina, largely identified with agricultural and mechanical pursuits, has caused to be inserted in two or more Maine papers an advertisement calling for white laborers to come to that State and place themselves in his employ. He has had the satisfaction of receiving communications from several parties, in which they express their intention to take early passage to that city for the purpose of seeking labor. The advertiser has a large tract of land, which he offers for cultivation on most enticing terms, besides which he has timber to fell and saw mills to keep in operation. The new comers, we will venture to say, will not regret settling in the South. They will also find that their services will not only be appreciated by their employers, but will yield a handsome remuneration to themselves.

The most ridiculous libel case yet is that of a man in Nantucket, who sued the publishers of the Mirror of that place, they having, in a report of the doings of the Superior Court two years ago, by a typographical error stated the date of his first suit in court wrongly. The Judge considered the libel suit so puerile that he instructed the jury to bring in a verdict for the defendants, without giving their lawyers time to offer a plea.

VALUABLE TESTIMONY.—Proude at any drug-gist's one of Mrs. S. Allen's circulars of her World's Hair Restorer and Hair Dressing, and you will find in it much valuable information concerning the human hair; also testimony from well known and reliable parties that will satisfy you that the proprietors have no equals for restoring, invigorating and beautifying the hair. If your hair is grey, if you have a bald spot, if you wish to retain your hair through life, use these preparations.

The Embassy from the Bey of Tunis has just made a visit to the Bay of New York, and very much regrets that the Bay of New York cannot pay a visit to the Bay of Tunis.—Sat. Press.

REPUTATION.

"The purest treasure mortal times afford, Spotsless reputation; that away, Men are but gilded loam, or painted clay." Reputation is man's best legacy. A pure and unspotted character is one of the most precious gifts that has ever been vouchsafed to man. It is one of his immortal attributes. When he dies and passes away, he leaves his character and reputation behind him to influence the generations that come after him. Every family has its household traditions; and all men do more or less to shape the actions and deeds of those who succeed them. How true is it then, "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches." It is more valuable than all the gold that was ever dug from the bowels of the earth; more inestimable than all the diamonds that were ever taken from Golconda's mines; more priceless than all the gems that ever sparkled beneath the sun, and when coupled with a faultless life, it is the One Price Fashionable HAT MART OF STEELE, King-street, opposite Society-street, will not fail to bear its possessor over the journey of life.

SAFES! SAFES!

Marvin's Combined Alum & Dry Plaster FIRE AND BURGLAR-PROOF SAFES.

THE ATTENTION OF MERCHANTS, BANKERS AND JEWELLERS, and all others having valuables to protect, is called to this—the only proof against fire, burglars and dampness—in place of others of doubtful character. There are many advantages claimed for this safe, which would be useless to enumerate through advertisement. Let those who are interested in the purchasing of such an article call and examine, or send for circulars, wherein its merits are truthfully set forth. Many cases of use in the leading houses of the country, and the severe tests by fire and burglar, to which they have been placed in this city alone, is a sufficient guarantee that they are all that is claimed. Call and examine styles.
